Comments from the Audience

Pam Rigacci-Carter-said that this is a matter that upsets her a great deal and asked that the Board review (or cease) any future loan deals, especially if someone already has a loan(s) with the City in which payments are not up to date or that are not being paid on properly. Mayor Mollaun said that this is an inherited matter, and is being reviewed.

Jim Jung—stated that he was born and raised in Lawrenceburg. He moved away briefly, but is back home and would like to remind everyone to attend games at the high school and get more involved.

Edward Opp, Fire Chief from Logan Township—asked for the Board to consider donating the engine truck that Lawrenceburg Fire is getting rid of. Mayor Mollaun said that he will take this under advisement and discuss in greater detail with the Board.
